

SECRETARY WILL BE MARRIED TO REVERE TEACHER

School Head's Aid Will Be Bride At Church Ceremony

Miss Mary Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Henry of 8 Mount Vernon street, has selected 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 28, for her wedding in St. John's church, to J. Douglas Roderick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roderick of 41 Bickford avenue, Revere.

Miss Henry, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white velva ray marquissette, with long train and veil, falling from a tiara of seed pearls. She will carry a white prayer book with an orchid streamer.

She will have as maid of honor, Miss M. Lorraine Roderick, sister of the groom, who will wear yellow marquisette, with lace trimming, and a tiara of natural flowers. The bridesmaids, Misses Rita Welch and Aileen Walsh, will wear orchid marquisette with flower tiaras, and all attendants will wear face veils, and carry old-fashioned nosegays. Joseph P. Henry, brother of the bride, will be the best man, and the ushers will be Henry Van Dyke and Stephen White of Revere.

At the reception to follow at Lodge Pole Ranch in Beverly, Mrs. Henry, mother of the bride, will assist in receiving in a gown of blue lace with orchid corsage, and Mrs. Roderick, mother of the groom, will wear blue linen lace, also with orchids.

Miss Henry is a graduate of Peabody High school and Salem Teachers' college. She has been secretary to Superintendent of Schools William A. Welch. Mr. Roderick is a teacher in Howe High school of Billerica. (Photo by Gainsboro.)
