Dear RoseAnna Just a line in reply to yours which we received on Thursday. My mother was awful glad and thankful for you mentioning the present for Mary OHara we could hardly stop her from crying when we told her we are to buy it for Xmas as for my mother she will never be able to tell her joy for her own order My father was in Aclare today getting the mare shod & Indeed he would make you laugh telling about Charlie's curls & he talks Yankee like the best of them.

I always thought I told you about John OHara been in Aclare before well I must tell you now he will be soon leaving them again he has purchased a house in Swinford on last Tuesday week.

Hugh Heaney house I guess you know where it is P. D never came home yet we had'nt any letter from him lately I suppose you will be awful fond of Celia's baby when she is like yourself but ye missed it to call her such a name. with regards to the kind furs there are not many wearing furs now at all but they are just the same as when you were home I will see the Prices the next time I go to town. I must finish with love to all goodbye wishing you a Merry Xmas from your loving sister Belinda to Roseanna XXXXXXXX

[writing along the top of page 1: My mother told me to excuse her to you for not answering your letter she is sending her love & best wishes to ye all goodbye XXXX write to me soon again]
