

Fross

Feby 26th 1923

My Dear Sister,

Your long expected letter arrived yesterday We were all delighted to learn by it that your are all well as mother was worried to death that something had happened to some one of you but thank God its not so.

{ Page 2 }

I was surprised when you said I didn't mention Pat D. name for so long it must be a great mistake of mine Pat D. is well as ever you seen him thank God. The only thing I regret when he is not married & doing for himself my troubles has put an awful upert on them all. Father and mother are getting the worst of it. You asked me for news but I cannot tell the half of them, there wont be a house in Ireland that wont be bu(r)ned Mrs Tword's house of Clooncleevragh was burned a few nights by the I.R.A. R. Kennedy B. Leehenny's son, Aclare are arrested & many others but there are not many boys around here in the IRA. A great many boys has joined the Free State. The country is in an awful state, a great many are going to that country Mrs J Obrien & all her family has sold there place & are going

{ Page 3 }

{ Page 4 }

Sunny Dan Gallaher Carrowlimore is going & many others around here. Bridgie Harte married to O Brien was buried yesterday a great many old people are dying there's a severe cold amoungst the people our children were bad with we are not all well yet Mother was delighterd to here Annie O Hara to be getting along so good she often talks of her when she was at the sea. Her sister is a great swank. We have not seen her

[more ?? this was the all & no envelope]

Sunny. Dan Gallagher Carrollmore is going & many others around here.

Bridgie Hart married to O'Brien. was buried yesterday a great many old people are dying there's a severe cold amongst the people our children were bad with we are not all well yet.

Mother was delighted to hear of Annie O'Hara to be getting along so good she often talks of her when she was at the sea. Her sister is a great swank. we have not seen her

I was.

Feb 26th 1923

My Dear Sister,

Your long expected letter arrived yesterday we were all delighted to hear by it that you are all well.
as mother was worried to death that something had happened to some one of you but thank God it's not so.

I was surprised when you said I didn't mention Pat. name for so long it must be a great mistake of mine Pat. D. is as well as ever you seen him thank God.
The only thing I regret when he is not married & doing for himself my troubles has put an awful upset on them all. Father & mother are getting the worst of it. You asked me for news but I cannot tell the half of them, there won't be a house in Dublin that won't be burned

Mrs. Swords house of Clonsilla was burned a few nights by the I. R. A. P. Kennedy B. Lecky's son. A class are arrested & many others but there are not many boys around here in the I. R. A. a great many boys has joined the Free State.
The country is in an awful state, a great many are going to that country Mrs. J. O'Brien & all her family has sold their place & are going